

1. Webb, Robert N.

We Were There With Caesar's Legions

1960

177p.

black and white illustrations

hardback, good condition, dust jacket in plastic cover

No overt Christian content.

Set during the Roman conquest of Britain.

Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 2.

2. Treece, Henry.

*Legions of the Eagle

1954

1190p.

black and white illustrations

paperback, good condition

No overt Christian content.

Set in the Roman conquest of Britain.

Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 2.

3. Marshall, S.J.

Rendered to Caesar

1959

122p.

no illustrations

hardback, good condition, dust jacket

From a Christian Perspective.

Set in New Testament times.

4. Anon.

Out of the Mouth of the Lion

c.1885

244p.

black and white illustrations

hardback, fair condition, loose endpaper

Written from a Christian Perspective.

Tells the story of the Church in the Catacombs.

5. Church A.J.

The Burning of Rome

1893

312p.

half tone plates

hardback, good condition,

Written from a Christian Perspective.

Tells the story of the great fire of Rome.

6. Oman, Carola.

Alfred King of the English

1950

246p.

black and white illustrations, one colour plate

hardback, good condition
No overt Christian content.
Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 4.

7. Sutcliff, Rosemary
Knights Fee
1960
238p.
black and white illustrations
paperback, with dust jacket and plastic cover, good condition
No Christian content.
Set in Norman England
Warning contains favourable references to “The Old Faith” that is, paganism.
Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 5.

8. Harnett, Cynthia
The Wool-Pack
1951
238p.
black and white illustrations
paperback, poor condition, some loose pages
No overt Christian content.
Set in the Cotswolds in 1493.
Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 10.

9. Trease, Geoffrey
Cue for Treason
1940
207p.
Black and white illustrations
Paperback, poor condition, spine loose
Excitement from start to finish in the tale of Elizabethan England.
Warning: the plot depends on a girl disguised in boy's clothing.
Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 12.

10. Lee, Albert
Under Coligny's Banner
c.1950
314p.
no illustrations
hardback, good condition,
From a Christian perspective.
A Tale of the Huguenots.

11. Savery, Constance
The Scarlet Plume
Hardback
1953
156p.
From a Christian Perspective
A Tale of the Huguenots

No illustrations

12. Orczy, Baroness
The Scarlet Pimpernel
1936
320p.

black and white illustrations

hardback, poor condition, spine gone.

The most famous tale of excitement, romance and rescue in all historical fiction. This edition has been censored by hand. It is included in this box for this reason as it is still in print.

Warning: some parents might consider the romantic elements still render this story unsuitable.

Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 22.

13. Craik, Mrs.
John Halifax, Gentleman
no date
320p.

one colour illustration

hardback, poor condition, spine loose

Written from a Christian viewpoint.

This classic tale of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century life is not only gripping as a story but also contains many fascinating insights into life at the time. the story includes descriptions of bread riots, parliamentary elections, bank failures and discussions of issues of the day such as Roman Catholic emancipation. Even the assassination of the evangelical Prime Minister Spencer Percival comes into the story.

Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 22.

14. Renier, Elizabeth
The Mail-Coach Driver
1985
78p.

black and white illustrations

hardback, good condition

No overt Christian content

Based on a true incident which happened to the Exeter mail in 1816. For younger readers but older children will find it interesting.

Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 22.

15. Henty G.A.
The G.A. Henty Omnibus: On the Irrawaddy; By Sheer Pluck; Captain Bayley's Heir
no date
384p.
no illustrations
hardback, fair condition,

Three full length Henty novels in one volume. On the Irrawaddy is set in 19th Century Burma, By Sheer Pluck is a "Tale of the Ashanti War" and Captain Bayley's Heir is a nineteenth century adventure story about someone falsely accused at school.

16. Henty G.A.
A Final Reckoning
no date

352p.
colour plates
hard back good condition
Set in Australia in colonial days.

17. Magraw B.I.
The Thrill of History in Story, play and Picture: Book 3 1961
191p.
Black and white illustrations, suitable for copying and colouring hardback, fair condition, some scribbling inside and on the cover.

This is not a fiction book but I could not resist slipping it in this box. The stories and plays are so well written that they are as much fun to read as fiction. There is a wonderful little play about John Wesley that would be great fun for a family to do together. Covers the period from James II to Victoria.

18. Gill, W.J.C
The Pilgrim Fathers
1964
79p.
Hardback, fair condition, binding weak
Black and white illustrations.
Another non-fiction book but so well written that it is enthralling to read. A mainly sympathetic account by a non-Christian.
Recommended reading for The Story of God's Dealings with our Nation Chapter 13.