

1. The Mulberry Bush
2. Curly Locks
3. Four and Twenty Tailors
4. Dickory Dickory Dock

Set of four landscape format nursery rhyme books with music for piano. Delicate full colour illustrations by Dutch artist H. Willebeek Le Mair. 1911. Use at the piano or on your lap!

Hard covers. Good condition.

5. Peter Rabbits 123.
6. What Time Is It, Peter Rabbit?
7. Peter Rabbit's Colours.
8. Peter Rabbit's ABC.

First teaching books that use pictures from the Beatrix Potter books. Every child should have Peter Rabbit read to him and all the original books are still in print. Although they are expensive they are a very good investment and grandparents etc. often like to buy them for young children. "A Peter Rabbit book, please!" is a good answer to the question "What would you like for your birthday?" These four books complement the original stories very well.

Hard covers. Good condition.

9. Children's Verse.

Illustrated by Margaret Tarrant

Classic nursery pictures

Hard Covers, Dust Jacket. Some scribbling.

10. Humpty Dumpty's Favourite Nursery Rhymes.

Dawn and Peter Cope. 1981

An unusual book because each rhyme is illustrated by a reproduction of an antique postcard.

Hard Covers. Good condition.

11. Iona Opie, Tail Feathers from Mother Goose. 1988

Unusual nursery rhymes. A couple of unsuitable pages have been removed and some illustrations slightly doctored.

Hard Covers. Fair condition.

12. My First Book of animal ABC
13. My First Book of Nursery Rhymes
14. My First Book of Numbers

All these have illustrations by renowned children's illustrator Margaret Tarrant.

Hard covers. Fair condition.

15. Sing a Song for Sixpence
16. The Farmer's Boy
17. Hey Diddle Diddle and Baby Bunting

Illustrations by Randolph Caldecott.
