

Illī autem spongī-am plēn-am ħcēt-ō, hyssōp-ō
They but a sponge filled with vinegar, on hyssop
 circumpōn-entēs, obtūl-ērunt ōrī ējūs.
placing, put to mouth of him.

30. Cum ergō accēp-issēt Jēs-ūs ħcēt-um,
When therefore had received Jesus the vinegar,
 dix-īt, Consumm-ātum est. Et, inclināt-ō cāp-ītē,
he said, It is finished. And, being bowed the head,
 trādīd-īt spīrīt-um.
he gave up the ghost.

THE PIERCING OF THE SIDE OF JESUS.

34. Sēd ūnūs mīlīt-um lancēā lāt-ūs
But one of the soldiers with a spear the side
 ējūs āpēr-uīt, et continuo exīv-īt sangu-īs et āqu-ā.
of him pierced, and forthwith came out blood and water.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS BY JOSEPH OF ARIMATHÆA AND NICODEMUS.

40. Accēp-ērunt ergō corp-ūs Jēs-ū, et
They took then the body of Jesus, and